Special & Memorial Trophy Awards

The Austin Packard Memorial Trophy

The winner will be chosen by the judge from First and Second Place exhibitors in Classes 1 – 15 based on the excellence in the horse, the rider, and overall presentation. Austin was a charter member of the Brecksville Kiwanis Club and a life-long Brecksville businessman and resident. A trophy and sash ribbon will be awarded.

Trophy & Sash Ribbon: Dwight and Pat Jordan and Rich Packard Awarded after Class 1502

The John M. Hruby Memorial Trophy

John very much enjoyed attending the Kiwanis Horse Show and attended for many years. His favorite class was the Arabian Costume. The winner will be selected by the judge for first place in Class 22. John created the interest that his three sons had in attending the horse show. For John, it was a more important date and event than Brecksville Day at Geauga Lake. He passed away in 1975 and starting in 1976, the family sponsored the John M. Hruby Memorial Trophy which in the early days was for the Arabian Costume Class. The Hruby family today continues to support the Brecksville Kiwanis Horse Show. A trophy and ribbon sash will be awarded.

Trophy & Sash Ribbon: Mayor Jerry Hruby Awarded after Class 22

The Maplecrest Farms Award

The winner will be selected from participants placing in classes 2, 3, 5, 1501, 1502, 16, 18, and 29 with the highest total points awarded in this series. Maplecrest Farm was established in 1820, a long standing farm in the community of Brecksville, with an emphasis on young riders and the EquestrianWorld.

Trophy & Sash Ribbon: Stacey and Meridith Giere Awarded after Class 30

Elton Lube Youth Hi-Point Memorial Trophy

The winner will be selected from exhibitors placing in classes 3, 5, 10, 20, 23, 25, and 28 with the highest total COSCA points awarded in this series. Elton Lube lived in Brecksville all his life and was a dedicated Kiwanian serving as Club President, Lt. Governor of the 24th Division, and later Governor of the Ohio District. He and his wife Kay, a longtime teacher in the Brecksville School System, were significant supporters of the Brecksville Kiwanis Foundation that provides annual scholarships. A trophy and sash ribbon will be awarded.

Trophy & Sash Ribbon: Pat and Bob Butler

Awarded after Class 33

The Jack Hruby Memorial Trophy

The winner will be chosen by the judge as the first place exhibitor in Class 37, English Road Hack Horses - S/M/G. This trophy is being presented by the Kiwanis Club in memory of Jack Hruby, longtime Kiwanian, former Councilman, and Mayor of Brecksville. A trophy and sash ribbon will be awarded.

Trophy & Sash Ribbon: Mayor Jerry Hruby

Awarded after Class 37

The Jerry Hruby Mayor's Award

The winner will be chosen by the judge as the first place exhibitor in Class 43, English Youth Western Pleasure 18 years & under-M/G, H/P. Mayor Jerry Hruby has carried on his family's tradition of being an outstanding supporter of the Horse Show. The Brecksville Kiwanis Club has recognized his partnership and collaboration by designating him as an Honorary Member. A trophy and sash ribbon will be awarded.

Trophy & Sash Ribbon: Mayor Jerry Hruby

Awarded after Class 43
